

MECHANIC/FITTER

ACCOUNTABLE TO: Plant Manager

Primary Responsibilities

- Carry out servicing, repair and maintenance on FoundOcean equipment's inclusive mixers, pumps, winches and silos.
- Inspect mixer mechanical/electrical components to assess works required and to diagnose faults and remedies required.
- Repair or replace broken or defective parts and resolve defects.
- Carry out required function testing of equipment's.
- Assist in mobilisation and set up of all plant and equipment
- Work under the supervision of FoundOcean Workshop Manager
- Complete all service sheets and associated paperwork as required.
- Carry out basic fabrication skills including small welding tasks.
- Be prepared to occasionally deploy to various sites to carry out maintenance and repair activities.

Maintaining Company and Operational Standards – Health and Safety

- Demonstrate a personal commitment to Health, Safety, and the Environment
- Know, understand, communicate and ensure compliance with the safety regulations (Occupational Health and Safety Regulation and Code) and safety policies and procedure concerning maintenance and repair activities.
- Comply with the Company's and where appropriate the Client's Health, Safety & Environment Policies and Procedures
- Ensure that all Quality and operational procedures as identified in the Company's QA Manuals are adhered to at all times.
- Report all safety related issues and monitor compliance of HSE standards in the workshop and yard area.

Skills, Knowledge and Experience

- Possess relevant Fitter qualification.
- Experience of electrically powered plant, pneumatic controls and hydraulics.
- Knowledge of concrete delivery pipework/valve arrangements beneficial
- Knowledge of health and safety requirements and standards
- Previous experience working within an offshore organisation beneficial

Key Attributes

- Strong team player with the ability to work autonomously.
- Willingness to learn new practices and technical techniques.
- Ability to work under pressure to tight deadline.
- Dependable and trustworthy
- Flexible to change and working in different environments.